FREDRICKSBURGH, Va., July 23. Pursuant to the order of Gen. Pope, Capt. Chandler, of Gen. King's Staff, arrested last night four of the most influential citizens of Fredericksburg, Messrs. Knox, Bartman, Gill and Guilford, to be held as hostages for the release of certain Union men carried off last Spring. The parases were taken from their beds late at night, and sent to Washington this morning.

There are a large number of individuals visiting their families here, on furlough from the rebel army, and plans are being arranged for their capture to-night.

The day before yesterday the 24 Indiana regiment of cavalry met the enemy several miles from here on the Richmond telegraph road, leaving one killed and six prisoners. .. Two companies of the Brooklyn 14th and a squadron of the Harris Light cavalry are in pursuit of the enemy.

HEADQUARTER'S ARMY. Virginia, July 24th, 1862. To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War.

A cavalry expedition sent out by Gen. King on the 23d from Fredricksburgh, returned last evening. Early yesterday morning they met and defeated a body of confederate cavalry about 100 in number stationed near Cannel Church on the telegraph road from Fredricksburgh to Richmond. They burnt their camp and six cars loaded with corn, and broke up the telegraph to Gordonsville. An hour later, a large body of Stuart's Cavalry came up to attack them. These, too, were defeated and driven across the North Anna River, and pursued until within sight of Hannibal Junction. Several prisoners, a large back. A march of 70 miles and the encounand the troops who have thus distinguished provided. themselves, but will transmit them to you as soon as the particulars are received.

The damage to the Virginia Central R. R. by the expedition of the 19th, is not yet repaired.

Signed.

they were very well treated by the robels. Union troops are almost daily arriving at this place, making a very short stay and then passing up James River to join Gen. McClellan's or Burnside's divisions.

New York, July 25th. The World publishes a despatch from Washington which says,"I learn from pretty accurate privates source that Ewell's, Hill's, Longstreets, and Jackson's divisions of the rebel army have left Richmond gradually during the past four nights, most of them going over the Virginia Central Railroad and that they are now concentrating near Gordonsville constituting an army of 60,000 strong. Undoubtedly an attempt is to be made on Mayland or Washington.

Our people are still uncertain whether it will be made up the valley or this way. Counteraids and attacks are to be instituted by us. A force may push for Richmond from Fredericksburg, with the purpose either of frightening them back, or of gaining more than they can

The Times' story about Secretary Seward's resignation, is without foundation.

Col. Scott, agent of the Post Office Department has returned from New Orleans. He states that Gen. Butler is the man for the place; and but for his stringent measures, New Orleans would not, probably, have been held.

New York, July 25. A letter to the Trabune, dated Memphis. July 18th, states that a rebel telegraph operator recently for four days read all the dispatches between Gen. Halleck, Commander Davis, Gen. Curtis and the commandant at Memphis, at a point within 25 miles of Memphis and made good his escape after it was discovered that some one was tampering

Another letter gives our loss in the recent fight with the rebel rom Arkansas at 34 kalled, 6 wounded and 23 missing.

New York July 26. The Tribune's Washington dispatch says, a German printer boy who has been a year in getting from New Orleans by Richmond where he was in prison 3 months, has arrived here. He estimates the number of fighting men at Richmond at 76,000, and confirms the report that 4 divisions under Longstreet, Ewell, Hill and Jackson, are stationed along the R. R. from Staunton to Gordonsville and at Louisa Court House under Stonewall Jackson, numbering in all in his opinion 50,000 men; but it is improbable that these divisions are more than 12,000 apiece after the severe fighting on the Chickshominy, 30,000 is probably nearer the number. Their pickets extend to New Market and their course appears to be up the Shenandoah valley.
